

Classwork Exercises: Present Perfect with already, just, yet and Tag Questions

1. Complete the sentences with already and the verbs from the box.

have	buy	go	take	see	pay
------	-----	----	------	-----	-----

e.g. Will you buy a new car?
Well, I have already bought one.

- Shall I pay the bill?
No thanks, I _____ it.
- Where is Jeff?
I don't know. I think he _____ home.
- Let's take a five minute break!
Thanks, but I _____ one.
- Do you want to come with us? We are going to see "War of the Worlds."
Thanks, but I _____ it.
- Would you like a piece of cake?
Thanks but, I _____ one and I am full.

2. Ask questions and write negative sentences in Present Perfect with the information provided plus yet.

e.g. The mail -arrive- (?) Has the mail arrived yet?

- your brother -see the doctor- (-) _____
- you -finish your homework- (?) _____
- Robert -find a job- (-) _____
- Dave -call- (?) _____
- The flight -arrive- (-) _____

3. Complete the following sentences using just.

e.g. I - arrived from a trip I've just arrived from a trip.

- She - phoned you _____
- Chris - finish his homework _____
- The doctor - leave the building _____
- The rain - stop _____